

FAQ

1. How can I purchase tickets for the event?

Tickets can be purchased online at www.559fights.com or at the venue box office during operating hours.

2. Can I get a refund for my tickets?

All ticket sales are final. There are no refunds. However, you may sell your tickets and or transfer them another party – email jeremy@559fights.com with that request.

3. Will I get a refund if my fighter's fight is canceled?

All ticket sales are final. We do not provide refunds for individual fighter cancellations. However, you may sell your tickets and or transfer them another party – email jeremy@559fights.com with that request.

4. How can I compete for 559 Fights on future events?

We are always looking for new talent! Fighters and coaches can email jeremy@559fights.com and or send a text message 559-813-0307.

5. Can I upgrade my ticket after purchase?

Yes, you have the option to upgrade at the front desk prior to the event, based on seating availability.

6. Can I bring a camera or recording device?

No professional cameras or recording devices will be allowed inside the venue. You are welcome to take photos and video on your personal device. No flash to be used at any time for fighter and officials' safety.

7. How can I become a sponsor or partner for future events?

For more information please email: Sales@559Fights.com or text 559-722-7000.

8. Can I buy tickets on the day of the event?

Yes, tickets may be available at the venue box office on the day of the event, but we recommend purchasing in advance as availability is not guaranteed. Additional fees may apply depending on the venue.

9. Who can I contact for media inquiries?

For media inquiries, please contact Michael Hernandez at media@559fights.com

10. Will the fights be televised or live streamed?

Yes, the fights will be televised on local station MY53 TV, starting at 7 PM. Also, you can stream MYTV53 at Zeam, which is a downloadable app. Please note that not all preliminary fights will be aired.